2020 Taipei International Travel Fair

Taipei ITF 2019 Highlights

The 2019 Taipei International Travel Fair was held at the Taipei Nangang Exhibition Center Hall 1, from November 8th to 11th. 60 countries (Table 1) including countries, hotels, travel-related industry, transportation industry, travel-related organizations, theme park, etc. participated in the event, utilizing 1,700 exhibition booths; in the four days of ITF, a total of 384,834 visitors attended the event (Table 2), generated more than 250 million of international and local media reports (Table 3), on-site business transactions estimated to exceed NT 2 billion, and effectively enhanced the brands and business opportunities of participating exhibitors. This year the public responded generously to “public service for free admission” promotions, by donating either blood as well as uniform invoices during the exhibition period. The Taipei Blood Center received a total of 2,625,000 C.C. of blood, and over 180,000 uniformed invoices were donated to the Eden Social Welfare Foundation and Zenan Homeless Social Welfare Foundation.

- 1) All travel agencies, hotels and tourism-related organizations must present licensed documents and registration.
- 2) Hotels and homestays must have the necessary government issued hotel and homestay license documents.
- 3) "Company Registration" or "Operating License" Registration Documents
 - ※ Please log on to the Ministry of Economic Affairs Commerce Industrial Services Portal to download your company's registration and license documents. Please visit the website at <http://gcis.nat.gov.tw>
 - ※ Taiwan Visitors Association Donation Entity are not required to turn in the documents stated above.

2. Regulations for coupons

- 1) All gift, hotel, hot spring, meal and other service coupons sold during the Travel Fair must abide by the regulations, that all related governmental organizations set for the relevant coupons, stated in the "Mandatory and Prohibitory Provisions to Be Included in Standard Contracts for Tourist Hotel Goods (Services) Coupons". Please provide an e-copy for reference with your application.
- 2) According to the regulations MOTC sets, only real licensed accommodation providers can issue coupons for hotels and homestays. This is to avoid any possible disputes caused by an inconsistency between issuers and providers which increases an uncertainty for risk assessment. If a company authorizes a third party to sell its coupons, in order to protect consumers' rights, it is mandatory to indicate on the coupons the name of the third party, the authorized period for sales, and for tourism hotels, also file numbers of approved documents by the relevant government authority.
- 3) Highlights for exhibitors selling coupons:
 - ① No expiry date for coupons is allowed. If the special offer with the coupon is valid only for a period of time, it should state "After the deadline for the special offer, the coupon remains valid with the price difference added".
 - ② A performance guarantee must be provided with the name of the financial organization responsible for the guarantee as well as the effective and expiry dates for the guarantee. The guarantee period must be no less than one year, effective from the issuing date.
 - ③ It is prohibited to state "The coupon cannot be used on certain days, Mother's Day, New Year, some holidays or consecutive holidays" or "valid only from a certain day to another day in a week". It can be noted "A price difference should be added if the coupon is used for a certain day of the week, New Year or consecutive holidays".
 - ④ The definitions for off peak and peak days should be stated on coupons. It is not allowed to show "The definitions for off peak and peak days depend on the rules of the site"; nor can it be written "The company reserves rights to adjust or change without a notice".

■ The companies of consignment sale of accommodation coupons, meal coupons, membership cards and other special offer coupons by promotional are not allowed to register.

■ Exhibitors may NOT market their online products using the name of the Taipei International Travel Fair (ITF) Online Travel Fair before the opening of the ITF. Once the ITF has ended, they may continue to market these products online for one month.

Other Privileges

■ Press Conference

1 day prior to the ITF, approximately 200 members of the local and international press community will be invited to interview the organizing committee, creating greater exposure for the event.

■ Product Presentation

Exhibitors may take this opportunity to further introduce and present new tourism products to consumers. This allows consumers to gain a more detailed understanding of the products available to them, and thus, fulfilling the purpose of this event.

■ Travel Mart

To develop Taiwan's inbound market, local and international buyers will be invited by Taiwan Tourism Bureau to engage in business discussion and exchange with exhibitors, further encouraging the growth of Taiwan's tourism industry.

■ Travel Forum

Organize a summit to address the current state of Taiwan's tourism industry, with the goal of improving the quality of the industry through fervent discussion amongst local and international industry experts.

■ Main Stage Performance

Welcome the renowned performance groups around the globe to perform at the event; by showcasing unique performances that demonstrate diversity and culture, the event will gain wider exposure through media and word-of-mouth.

■ Official Website Exposure

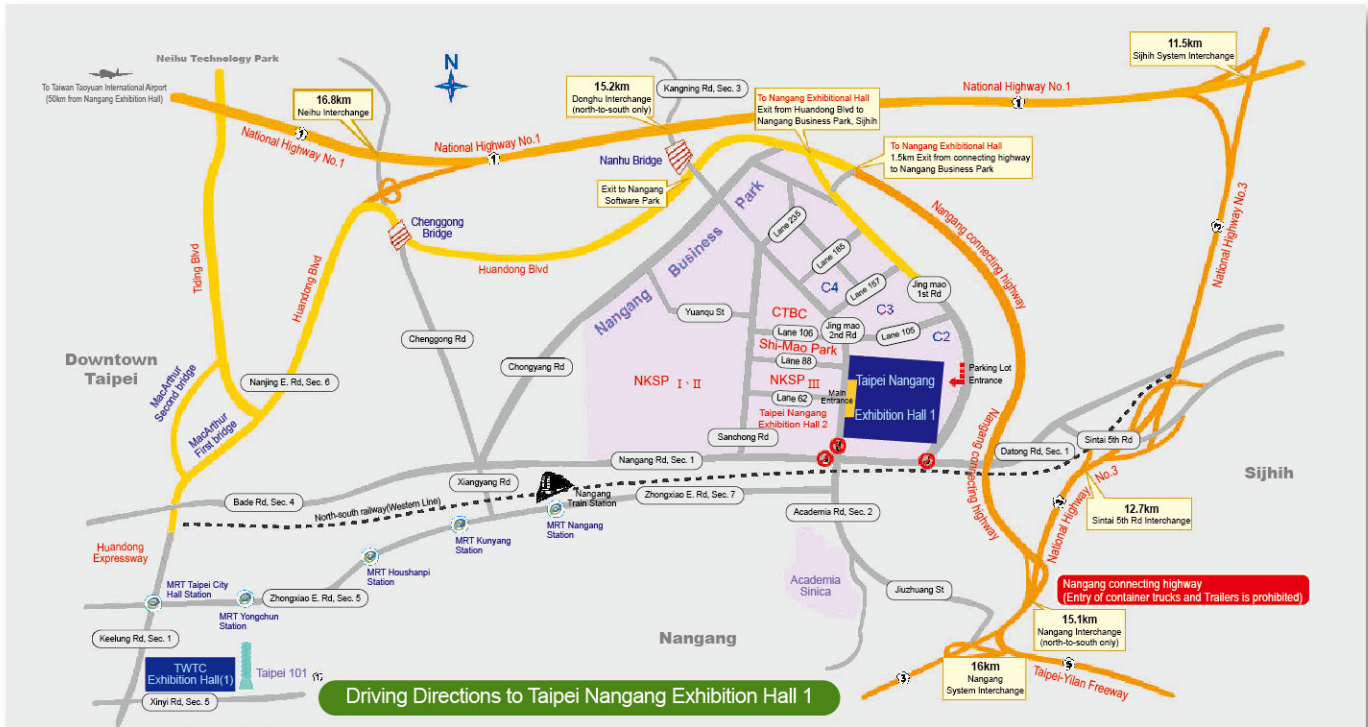

From Sep. 30th to Nov. 2nd, exhibitors may provide information on special offers, which will be announced in ITF's official website, Facebook before the exhibition.
